

—F. W. Johnson, Esq., is the Louisville correspondent of the Lagrange (Texas) True News.

—Another brilliant, spring-like day was yesterday. The air was as bright and genial as in April.

—A fifth volume of Macaulay's History, edited by Lady Trevelyan, is announced by London publishers.

—The Westminster Review thinks Motley is entitled to hold a foremost place among the first historians of our age.

—The receipts at the lecture by Bishop Spalding, in New Albany, last evening, for the benefit of the Catholic Church in that city, reached the sum of two hundred dollars.

—The Eastern depot for the distribution of relief for the poor has been removed to W. H. Dix's box shop, south side of Main street, between Jackson and Hancock.

—There was a brilliant wedding at the Cathedral last evening, and the spacious church was filled with wedding with spectators of the ceremony.

—Today is Ash-Wednesday. It is proper in the present aspect of public affairs that we put ashes upon our foreheads if patriotism has been utterly consumed.

—Lieut. Thomas W. Walker, of the United States army, is spending a few days in New Albany with his relatives and friends. He is enjoying excellent health.

—A man in New Albany the other day, on being asked by the Assessor his age, replied that in case there was no war he was forty-one, but if there was war he was forty-six.

—The people of Patoka township, Crawford county, Ind., have endorsed the "treasonable" resolution of their fellow-citizens of Perry, that if a division of the Union is made the line must be run North of there.

—A fight occurred between two women in the upper part of New Albany yesterday morning, in regard to truant husbands. The females went to work in earnest, but the fun was soon spoiled by the interference of other parties.

—A burglary was attempted upon the store of Claggett & Co., New Albany, on Monday night, but nothing was stolen.

—The Marine Rifle Zouaves, Major Woodruff, commanding, were out for parade drill last night, and gave further evidence of their great efficiency.

—The play of Colleen Bawn was repeated for the seventh time last evening, to an audience quite as large as before. It had a run quite unparalleled in the annals of this theater. Its success, however, well deserved, and we would be willing to see it repeated twenty times more, as very possibly it may be.

—F. W. Johnson, Esq., the most genial of humorists, and the most wonderful of mimics, is to shake our sides with laughter on Thursday evening. He is a worthy successor of the great Dr. Valentine, and should be seen and heard by every one who can enjoy an honest and hearty laugh.

—Holmes & Co. have just received a consignment of jewelry and diamonds, consisting of necklaces, bracelets, brooch and ear-rings. Value twenty-five thousand dollars. The necklace is composed of forty-three brilliant gems of the first water, forming a circle; from the center are appended seven pear-shaped diamond pendants, of rare form and value. The cost of the necklace alone is sixteen thousand dollars.

—Alfred Holman gives his admirable drum imitations to-night.

—PROFESSOR OF COMMERCE IN CONGRESS. The Washington correspondent of the Herald more states that the Republican members in the House of Representatives are divided into two nearly equal parties upon the question of adhering to the Chicago Platform and resisting all schemes of compromise. About one-half of the number are willing to go as far as the Adams proposition.

—Innocent and harmless—the entertainment of the Holmans.

—Mr. O. B. Strattan, apothecary and druggist, opposite the postoffice, offers his sincere and profound thanks to his friends who have so liberally patronized his establishment, and expresses a full belief that all persons desiring prescriptions, toilet articles, perfumery, imported cigars, tobacco, foreign and domestic wines and liquors will find it really to their interest to deal at his house.

—He manufactures quite an assortment of preparations and medicines, among the most reliable are the Compound Buckeye Pine Salve, Goldborough's Chamberlain's Remedy, Thompson's Fever and Ague Pills, Bouquet Cologne Water, Blackberry Wine, Cough Candy, Essence of Jamaica Ginger, Jackson's Pectoral Syrup, Tartaric Citric Lemonade, etc., which he will sell at the trade in New York prices.

—The clergy patronize the Holmans.

—We advise our friends, and merchants especially, to attend that great sale at L. Kahn & Co.'s commission house, No. 401 Main street, conducted by J. Grauman, auctioneer, which takes place this morning, at 10 o'clock. Their assortment is very great in every branch of goods. Sale positive. For particulars see advertisement.

—Memory may fail, but the programme at the Holmans', to-night, will not.

—We again call the attention of the lovers of the fine arts to Mr. C. C. Spencer's sale of French steel-plate engravings and oil paintings, which is to come off, at his auction rooms this morning at 10 o'clock. Heretofore his engravings and others of like merit are included in the sale.

—One hundred dollars will be paid to the man who has not enjoyed the entertainment at the Holmans', provided he has been there.

—"Creole," the Washington correspondent of the New Orleans Delta, gives the following:

—A vagrant member of Congress asked a high official, who was ridiculing the Government, just and amiable in his intercourse with his brethren of the jeu. He murmured no emulor; he was above all jealousies of the success of others, and in every step of his career, up to the exalted position in which he died, he was followed by the cordial congratulations of all who knew him, and especially of his brother.

—Resolved, That our long association with him as members of the bar, and in the ordinary intercourse of life, recall to the memory of his personal characteristics with vivid distinctness at this moment of unfeigned sorrow, and revive him in our minds as a purely honorable man, a true gentleman, and an ornament of his profession, and we cherish his memory with affection, respect, and admiration.

—Resolved, That the members of this bar respectfully tender to the bereaved family of their deceased friend the most earnest sentiments of sympathy and condolence.

—Resolved, That the attorney for the Commonwealth be requested to present these resolutions to the courts of this city, and request that they be entered on the records thereof.

—Resolved, That copies of the resolutions be communicated to the widow of Judge Wood by the chairman of the records.

Seventh and Eighth Wards! Working-men, Attention!

The Working-men Association will meet on Wednesday evening, 13th inst., at their Hall, corner of Market and Eleventh streets.

Every member will please attend, and all Union-loving citizens who desire to co-operate are earnestly urged to come and enroll themselves on that occasion, as important matters connected with the city will be brought to their attention. Doors open to all—no secrecy—no "patronism." Rally! Rally!

ALP. R. KIRK, Secretary.

First and Second Wards! Working-men, Attention!

The working-men, merchants, and citizens generally, are invited to the "Working-men's Association" on Thursday evening, at their Hall, No. 333 Main street, (south side), third door west of Campbell street. Doors open to everybody but Disunionists. Every son of toil is earnestly invited to co-operate. By order of the Secretary.

Are you sick with the "blues"? A ticket for the Holman's is the cheapest remedy.

—"Creole," the Washington correspondent of the New Orleans Delta, gives the following:

TO BE, ON NOV. 15, AT THE COURT OF THE COMMONS, IN THE CITY OF LONDON, AT TEN O'CLOCK, THE FOLLOWING CASES WILL BE HEARD:—
1. The Queen v. O'Donnell, the enterprising proprietor of the Commons and Brook and Floyd, still continues to sell goods at panic prices. In consequence of the immense rush for bargains, we will say for the benefit of many who have been unable to procure goods at the time they have called, that we will continue for two weeks longer to dispose of his stock at the same rates as advertised heretofore. Having a buyer constantly in the Eastern market watching the auction, he is free to say that he can sell at least twenty per cent. lower than any other house in Louisville, and as his entire stock has been purchased exclusively for cash, he has many advantages of competing with merchants who buy on credit, and eight months' credit; therefore let those who would make the best of these hard times, please call soon.

2. Meers, Donny & Crawford have removed to No. 404 Third street, between Jefferson and Green streets. They are prepared to execute every description of business in their line, such as plumbing and gas-fitting. The gentlemen composing the firm are active and intelligent master workmen, and deserving the patronage of all. See their card of removal in another column.

3. Orders for subscription to the Daily Democrat left at Geo. W. Barth's feed-store, northwest corner of Market and Twelfth streets, and at G. Zausinger's drug store, southeast corner of Jefferson and Shelby streets, will be promptly attended to by the carriers.

4. Choice Pittsburg and Pomeroy Coal. We desire to say to all those who wish a good article of Pittsburg and Pomeroy coal, that they can always be found at the depot of Capt. W. A. Foster, corner of Jefferson and Third streets. Those who would send to a fair dealer and clear gentleman, will do well to bear the above office in mind when they want good coal.

5. Trucks.—Among the places worthy of the attention of the visitors to Louisville at the present time, is the great trunk manufactory and export of J. H. McCleary, on the northeast corner of Fourth and Main streets. His large manufactory enables him to supply trucks, raised, lowered and box, carpet bags, bureau trunks, etc., of the very best quality, at unprecedented low prices. All of Mr. McCleary's work is beautiful, as well as durable goods. Give him a call.

6. Notice to Eastern and Western Shippers.—Merchants and shippers, who are more and Ohio Railroad through fast freight line and from the East, the shortest rail route between the Ohio river and Atlantic cities. This route is unobstructed by snow during winter months, and offers unrivaled facilities for the certain and rapid transportation of freight. This road having no floating debt, its credit and responsibility are undoubted; its management have dictated the policy of promptly adjusting all claims for damage and overcharges occurring in the transit of freight; the bills of lading issued by authorized agents fully recognized at the place of destination. Merchants who please direct Eastern correspondents to mark via B. & O. and M. & C. R. R. For all information and through bills of lading, rates of freight, etc., apply to

7. Urgent Notice.—The Hon. J. F. expressed himself so strongly in favor of the perpetuity of our glorious Union, that he believed there was no earthly contingency within the reach of human calculation "which could justify a disruption of this glorious government." Language equally as strong might be used in favor of the great clothing establishment of J. M. Armstrong, on Main street, opposite the National Hotel. To sustain these two institutions—the Union of the States and Armstrong's Clothing House—are the great questions now before the American people. "They must and shall be sustained!"

8. A time when there is great fear that the stock of dry lumber, sash, doors, blinds, etc., will fall short, owing to the vast amount of improvements in Louisville, it will be interesting to the public to know that Alexander, Ellis & Co. have enlarged their factory and have now a handsomely equipped lumber mill. Call at their office on Main street, nearly opposite the Galt House, or at their factory on Fulton, above Preston street.

9. Fix Furniture.—Wharton & Bennett keep constantly on hand a large stock of desirable parlor, office and chamber furniture, of all kinds and patterns, at the lowest prices. Call at their warehouse at the lowest prices. Their store is Nos. 602 and 604 Market street, between Second and Third.

10. N. Collins sells the best of coal at his office, Third street, between Market and Jefferson. Give him your orders.

11. See advertisement of Dr. Sanford's Liver Invigorator, in another column.

12. Dr. Hallenberger's Fever and Ague Antidote is not only the best and safest remedy for Fever and Ague, and all kindred diseases, but much the cheapest. Leaving out of the question all other advantages, a single trial will convince any one that less money need be spent, and much less time lost, in curing even the most obstinate cases by the use of these Pills, than by any other course of treatment. Get a pamphlet of the Agent, and read the testimony on this point.

13. We would call the particular attention of every reader to the advertisement of McCleary's Strengthening Cordial and Volcanic Oil. Having been in the market in this community require recommendations. But there are many of our readers who are suffering from a derangement of the digestive organs, giving rise to symptoms, such as dyspepsia, nervous, unpleasant feeling, indigestion, lack of energy, making existence a burden. To all who may be afflicted, try this cordial; it will give immediate relief. To all who may be afflicted with nervous or faints of any kind, try the Liniment. See the advertisement in another column.

14. Yellow Cholera.—See advertisement of Dr. J. H. McCleary's Yellow Cholera Remedy, in another column.

15. Covered Vases.—See advertisement of J. H. McCleary's Covered Vases, in another column.

16. A few cases of men's extra fine suits.—See advertisement of J. H. McCleary's men's extra fine suits, in another column.

17. Franklin Hotel.—See advertisement of the Franklin Hotel, in another column.

18. Dr. J. H. McCleary's.—See advertisement of Dr. J. H. McCleary's, in another column.

Special Notices.

Special Notices.

THE DAILY DEMOCRAT TO THE COUNTRY. Now that Congress is in session and every one within the facilities of a daily mail should take a daily paper, we beg leave to remind our readers and the public generally, that the Daily Democrat, for the country, is supplied at five dollars per year or fifty cents per month, payable always in advance.

Let those who would keep themselves posted on the current events of the times send forward their subscriptions at once.

To Our Patrons in Jeffersonville. In order to do ourselves and our patrons in Jeffersonville justice, and to secure the prompt and early delivery of the Democrat, we have changed carriers, and Mr. C. D. Hally will deliver our paper, henceforward, at the rate of 12 cents per week, our regular rate in Louisville. Our circulation has lately increased fully fifty per cent., but we trust that its present numbers will be doubled within a few days. Those who do not receive their papers at once, will oblige us by reporting the fact to Mr. Hally, at BARNARD'S coal office, on Pearl street.

Our Printing Office for Sale. A large and well-appointed Job Printing Office, with its press and fixtures, is offered for sale. The proprietor, wishing to quit the business, will dispose of it at the most reasonable price. For particulars, inquire at the Democrat office.

Engine and Boiler Shop. We have for sale a good, serviceable engine and boiler, which can be bought low for cash. It can be seen at the Democrat office.

Don't Miss. For the past several months I have been laboring under great weakness and general debility, much of the time confined to my bed, and from which I received no benefit from any physician. After using some of your blood pills, and blood purifier, purchased of your agent, Mr. Wm. H. L. Plummer, I feel as a new person, almost entirely free from disease, and would recommend your medicines to all who are in need of so invaluable remedies.

See advertisement in another column.
